OBITUARY

Another soldier gone to get a great reward. He fought the fight, he kept the faith, and now he has gone home to God. Brother Avery Jones was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones of Haywood County, Tennessee. He was born August 13, 1892 and departed this life September 27, 1975. His soul winged it's flight from this world of sin, sorrow, and pain to a place of eternal rest. There are some lives that disappoint us, some impressions of character which we have to revive in later years. But the impression that was formed of Brother Avery Jones when you first met him remained unchanged to the end of his life.

He professed a hope in Christ at an early age and united with the Prospect C. M. E. Church where he served as a faithful member until his death. He served as a Steward, Church Treasurer, and Member of The Trustee Board. He gave freely of his time and money, and was willing to do anything he felt would help for good in any way. He would stand firm on anything he believed was right. He was not selfish, hence, he felt he needed someone to go by his side and enjoy whatever he might accumulate in life. So he married the late Miss Mary Lee Walker. To this union three children were born. Later he married Miss Sallie Jones. To this union ten children were born. He was faithful to his family and strove to make them comfortable and happy.

He leaves to cherish his memories: A wife, Mrs. Sallie Jones: Nine sons, Messrs. Elbert and James Henry Jones of Memphis, Tennessee, William and Larry Jones of Stanton, Tennessee, Walter Jones of Somerville, Tennessee, Joe Louis and Fred Jones of Nashville, Tennessee, Sgt. Richard Jones of Washington, D. C., Avery Jones Jr. of Chicago, Illinois: Four daughters, Mrs. Pearl Mae Rufus of Stanton, Tennessee, Mrs. Jennie Bell Johnson of Cleveland, Ohio, Mrs. Ethel Massey of Milan, Tennessee; and Mrs. Sallie E. Perry of Flint, Michigan. Two sisters, Mrs. Anna Miller of Pontiac, Michigan and Mrs. Lela Wilkerson of Memphis, Tennessee: Eight daughters-in-law: Four sons-in-law: Four brothers-in-law: Four sisters-in-law: Thirty-two grandchildren: Twenty-five great grandchildren: And a host of other relatives and friends.
