OBITUARY

We have come together today at the call of death, an event that is constantly around us. Naturally our hearts are filled with sorrow, and tears will flow when our loved ones are taken from us, but we should still our grief long enough to think what this home going means to a friend. Toils and burdens bearing are exchanged for the repose of heaven. We should rejoice and thank God for a life which leaves behind it a radiance of purity, goodness, and peace. On the evening of September 11, 1984 at 1:45 P. M., the Angel of Silence came into the Hospital room of Sister Viola Hobson, and with chilly fingers sealed her lips.

She was born June 21, 1895; age 89. She was born to the late Mattie Pirtle and Ed Turner. Later in life she met and married Jesse Hobson, who preceded her in death. To this union 3 children were born. Two preceded her in death. She became a Christian at an early age and joined the Dancyville C. M. E. Church. She was a devout mother; a good neighbor, an advisor, and a loveable person, supported the Church in any way she could while she was able to. Even though she was disabled to be present often her finances were always there.

She is survived by 1 son, Jesse Hobson of Winnapeg, Canada, and a daughter-in-law, Victoria Hobson also of Winnapeg, Canada; 1 sister, Mrs. Lillian Taylor of Brownsville, Tennessee, 1 step-grandson, Mr. Virgil Carter of Toronto, Canada; 2 sisters-in-law, Martha Yancey of Nashville, Tennessee, Vanalla Rivers of Toledo, Ohio, 2 nieces - Bennie Sue Brown and Mary Long, Indianapolis, Ind., two nephews J. C. Pirtle and James Henry Pirtle; a host of nieces and nephews to mourn her passing.
