

THE TWENTY-THIRD PSALM

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

To Lose Someone

My grandmother was patient with a smile, someone we could always count on. Someone to cope with all our problems. Someone to make a sad heart happy. Someone to make us smile. She was all the things that brightened our lives; just like sunshine from above. To sum it up, she was the best grandmother you could love.
