OBITUARY

The passing of Phyllis D. Davis has called us together today. There is no death. An angel form walks o'er the earth with silent tread and bears our loved ones away; and then we call them dead. But they are ever near us, though unseen. Their dear immortal spirits tread. For all the boundless universe is life; there is no death. The giver just takes back His loved ones unto Himself after they have wrought such beautiful patterns during their sojourn.

Phyllis was born August 14, 1967 in Haywood County, Tennessee and was converted and joined Dancyville C. M. E. Church. She departed this life March 30, 1991 at Jackson-Madison County General Hospital, Jackson, Tennessee at 1:30 A. M.

She leaves to mourn her loss a son, Cornelius Davis; a devoted mother, Mrs. Minnie D. Williams; four sisters, Gloria Davis, Georgia (Clifford) Robinson, Darline Williams and Debra Davis, all of Stanton, Tennessee; five brothers, Herbert (Janie) Williams of Mason, Tennessee, James and John Davis of Stanton, Tennessee, Larry (Teresa) Williams of Brownsville, Tennessee and Prentice (Sharon) Williams of Memphis, Tennessee; two aunts, Bobbie J. Bells of Stanton, Tennessee and Ella Louise Vaughn of Brownsville, Tennessee and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

We think of you so far away. Beyond the clouds in heaven, a beautiful city to behold, complete with golden mansions. Jesus sits at your right in a white and shining robe, directing the universe and watching all his children. Teach me your ways, dear Lord, and prepare me for your glorious kingdom. Amen.

Your Son, Sisters and Brothers

Through the years she kept on toiling
Through the storms and rain,
She was tired of the load she was carrying,
But when the gates swing open
She'll walk in.

No matter what she did or done,
Mother still loved her, go home
And take your rest
When the gates swing open, you'll walk in.

Your Loving Mother
