Obituary

*But some day we will meet again,
All our loved ones who have gone before;
Some day we will reach the happy land
Where parting will be no more.*

Mrs. Muzette Boyland was born to the late Cora and Hick Thompson on March 11, 1924.

She confessed hope in Christ at an early age at Douglas Chapel C.M.E. Church in Stanton, Tennessee.

She later joined Greater Mt. Zion where she taught Sunday School and was a member of the Usher Board. She worshiped faithfully until her health failed.

She departed this life May 21, 1996 at Methodist Hospital.

She leaves to cherish her memories: one son, Robert Whitmore; her late husband, Joe Boyland; one sister, Lucille Demire; one brother, Winfrey Douglass; two sisters-in-law; goddaughter, LaShun Lyles; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Recessional

*There's an open gate at the end of the road,
Which each must go alone,
There's a light we cannot see,
our Father claims his own.
Beyond the gate your loved one finds happiness and rest.
And there is the thought,
that a loving God knows best.*
