Obituary

"Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal." God said, "You are getting weary." So he did what was best. He came and stood beside you and whispered, "Come and rest." You bade no one a last farewell, not even a last goodbye. You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why.

Walter B. Jones was born in Haywood County, Brownsville, Tennessee August 4, 1911 to the late Jake and Ora Jones. He suddenly departed this life Monday, October 3, 1988 at the Methodist Haywood Park General Hospital. He professed a hope in Christ at an early age and united with the Dancyville A.M.E. Church. Later he moved to Brownsville, Tennessee where he united with the Farmer Chapel C.M.E. Church where he remained until death. He served on the Steward and Trustee Boards.

He received his education at the Haywood County School, Graduate of Lane College, Jackson, Tennessee. He also served in the United States Armed Forces during World War II. He retired from the Haywood County School System after 28 years of service.

He was a Christian man, faithful and friendly, a good neighbor and will be sadly missed. He was united in Holy Matrimony to Gladys Evans on March 12, 1941. To this union 4 daughters were born.

He is survived by his devoted wife Mrs. Gladys Jones, daughters, Clarice Johnston, Walterene Johnson, Gwendlyn Boyd, Sharon Seals, all of Chicago, Illinois; 4 grandchildren; 3 sons-in-law; one sister Hartense Hays, Brownsville, one aunt Mary Colemon; six brothers-in-law; seven sisters-in-law, other relatives and friends.

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one. I'd like to leave an after glow of smiles when life is done. I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave, when life is done.
