OBITUARY

When sorrow comes, as sorrow must,
All that can help are time and trust.
Time the great healer of grief and sorrow,
Trust in the thought of a brighter tomorrow.

Mr. Johnny Taylor Sr. was born to the late Mr. Aussie and Virginia Taylor on September 3rd, 1924. He departed this life May 13th, 1981 in Veterans' Hospital at Memphis, Tenn.

He professed a hope in Christ and united with St. Peter C. M. E. Church. He married Miss Odessa Currie. Later in life he married Miss Earnestine Neal. To this union eleven children were born, two preceded him in death.

Mr. Taylor served in World War II. He was a good father and husband and did all he could for his family.

He leaves to cherish his memories: A wife, Mrs. Earnestine Taylor: Seven daughters, Mmes. Marilyn Taylor of Savannah, Ga., Johnny Ruth, Clarice, Bernice, Janice and Alma Kate, all of Brownsville, Tenn.: One step-daughter, Mrs. Josie Mae Clarke of Detroit, Mich.: Three sons, Messrs. Wilbert Johnny Jr. and James Author Taylor, all of Brownsville, Tenn.: Three brothers, Messrs. Author H. Perkins, Venson Perkins Sr., both of Brownsville, Tenn. and Rufus Perkins of Chicago, Ill.: Eight grandchildren: A mother-in-law, Mrs. Clearine Neal of Decatur, Ill.: Five uncles: Three aunts: Four sisters-in-law: Four brothers-in-law: And a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed those loving eyes,
And whispered, Peace Be Thine.
