Obituary

1982

*The clock of life is wound but once,
And no man has the power
To tell just when the clock will stop,
At an early or late hour.*

Now is the only time we own, let us love and toil with a will. Let us place no trust in tomorrow for the clock may then be still.

Peace came on Monday morning when Sis. Boyd was called home to reap the great reward. She has now fulfilled her purpose and though we weep now, we shall rejoice with her and thank our heavenly Father for the life she lived among us, and taking her away to rest in Peace where no pain of suffering exists.

Her Christian life was as the fragrance of a beautiful rose. She was quiet in her manner, and pleasant toward everyone.

She was born to the late Mr. Alvin Douglass and Mrs. Mary Taylor Douglass. She professed a hope in Christ at an early age and joined the Dancyville CME Church. She later united with the St. John M.B. Church where she remained until death. She joined in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Leatha Boyd. To this union 14 children were born.

She leaves to mourn her passing a loving husband: Rev. Leatha Boyd, a mother: Mrs. Mary Taylor Douglass of Brownsville, Tennessee; 5 daughters: Mrs. Dorothy Pruitt, Mrs. Betty Blair of Lansing, Michigan, Ms. Carolyn Owens, Joann, and Peggy Ann Boyd of Stanton, Tennessee. 9 Sons: Mr. Albert L. Boyd and David of Lansing, Michigan, Mr. Ben Boyd of St. Louis, Missouri, Mr. George Boyd of Tiptonville, Tennessee, Mr. Lewis Boyd of Cookeville, Tennessee, Mr. Leatha Boyd Jr. with the U.S. Navy of Charleston, S.C., Mr. Wallace Clifford and Larry Boyd of Stanton, Tennessee; 18 Grandchildren; 1 Sister: Mrs. Mary L. Hobson of Brownsville, Tennessee; 4 Brothers: Mr. Addison and Gilliam Douglass of Brownsville, Tennessee, Mr. Willie L. Douglass of Stanton, Tennessee, Mr. T.J. Douglass of Gary, Indiana; 9 Sisters-in-law; 3 Brothers-in-law; 1 aunt: Mrs. Anna Jones, Chicago, Illinois; 3 sons-in-law; 2 daughters-in-law; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives to mourn her passing.

God saw the road was getting rough. The hills were hard to climb. He gently closed those loving eyes, and whispered peace be thine.
