

PALLBEARERS

Bro. Azell Dancy	Bro. A. W. Prewitt
Bro. Raymond Douglass	Bro. Eddie Lee Perry
Bro. Albert Lee	Bro. Jim Shaw Jr.

FLOWERBEARERS

Ushers

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family wishes to thank their many friends for the love and kindness shown them, and most of all, the prayers during this, their hour of bereavement.

.....The Family.....

INTERMENT: Dancyville Cemetery

RAWLS' FUNERAL HOME MORTICIANS IN CHARGE

OBSEQUIES

OF THE LATE

Sis. Mary Davis

1908 - 1972

DANCEYVILLE C. M. E. CHURCH
Danceyville, Tennessee

SUNDAY: February 27, 1972

Time: 2:00 P.M.

Rev. Adams, Pastor

O B I T U A R Y

Sis. Mary Nelson Davis, daughter of the late Mr. & Mrs. James Nelson, was born in Fayette County, Tennessee October 5, 1908. She departed this life February 19, 1972 at the Madison County General Hospital, Jackson, Tennessee at 12:30 P.M.

Sis. Davis learned in her early life that she needed someone to help her on her way. Thus she professes a hope in Christ and united with the Russell Grove M.B. Church. Later she moved to the Dancyville Community and united with the Dancyville C.M.E. Church where she served as a faithful member until death.

She was married to Mr. A.D. Davis. To this union eight children were born, four predeceased her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memories: A devoted husband, Mr. A.D. Davis; Four daughters, Mrs. Minnie Lue Williams and Mrs. Ella Louis Vaughn of Stanton, Tennessee, Mrs. Bobbie Jean Bell of Free Port, New York, and Mrs. Sallie Mae Gray of Covington, Tenn.; Three sons-in-law; One brother, Mr. Melvin Nelson of Orreville, Ohio; One sister-in-law; Four sisters; Two aunts; Thirty grandchildren; And a host of Nieces, Nephews, and other relatives and friends.

So long as life's hope-sparkle glows,
'tis good;
When death delivers from life's woes,
'tis good.
O praise the Lord who makes all good,
and will;
Whether he life or death bestows,
'tis good.

P R O G R A M M E

Processional
Song	Choir
Scripture
Prayer
Song	Choir
Remarks	Bro. Robert Ballard
Solo	Sis. Elma Pirtle
Resolutions	First Baptist Church Brownsville, Tennessee Russell Grove M.B. Church & Others
Acknowledgements
Obituary	Sis. Gloria J. Sweet
Solo	Mrs. O. L. Turner
Eulogy	Rev. Adams, Pastor
Viewing of Remains Recessional
Mrs. Marie Bond, Mistress of Ceremonies	