Obituary

Nathaniel Vaulx, Sr. was born on September 1, 1933 to the late Jackson and Lenora Vaulx in Stanton, TN. He departed his life on Sunday, May 26, 2002 at 7:20 A.M. in his home.

At an early age Nate was baptized at St. John Missionary Baptist Church in Stanton, TN. He later moved with his father and brother to St. Louis, MO. In 1951 he relocated to Chicago, IL where he served four years in the US Air Force.

Nate met and married his loving and devoted wife Gladys Taylor Vaulx of forty-six years. To this union four children were born. Nate's competitive nature was instrumental in providing for his family, which was his first priority. His unwillingness not to except failure was the driving force behind his success. Nate was known for his candor to all those who knew him. He was a man who spoke his mind at all times but chose his words wisely.

He leaves to cherish his memories, a loving and devoted wife, Gladys; one daughter, Verinda Matthews (William) of St. Paul, MN; three sons: Nathaniel Vaulx, Jr. (Lorraine) of St. Paul, MN; Gregory A. Vaulx (Evelyn) of Stanton, TN and Tyrone Vaulx who preceded him in death; one brother, John Lee Vaulx (Corinne) of Danville, IL; two sisters: Amy Ruth Patton (William) of Chicago, IL; Ollie Mae McClemore of Riverside, CA; two aunts: Myrtle Dennis and Olean "Little Bit" Taylor, both of Cleveland, OH; six grandchildren: Shalese, Nate III, Shervon, Andre, Tiffany, and Greg, Jr.; three great-grandchildren: Christopher, Quentin, Nathaniel Vaulx IV; a very special cousin, Margaret Vaulx and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
