Mrs. Louise Fleming Jones

The daughter of Rev. Tommie Lee, Sr. and Fannie Mae Fleming was born July 28, 1955 in Somerville. She departed this life early Tuesday morning March 31, 1998 at Methodist Hospital in Somerville. She professed a hope in Christ at an early age and joined St. Paul M.B. Church in Williston, Tennessee where she remained until her passing.

She was First Lady of the Prospect C.M.E. Church in Stanton - Dancyville where she worked faithfully in whatever capacity needed.

She was a member of the Ministers' Spouses Department of the Oakland District West Tennessee Annual Conference.

She was educated in the Fayette County Schools and was employed at Clevite in Collierville, Tennessee.

She leaves to mourn her passing a devoted husband, Reverend Samuel L. Jones, two sons, Eric Fleming of Memphis, Tennessee, Christopher Jones of Williston, two daughters, Tameka Jones and Jessica Jones of Williston. A daughter-in-law, Tonya Fleming. Loving parents, Reverend Tommie L., Sr. and Fannie Mae Fleming of Somerville, Tennessee. One grandmother, Mrs. Fannie Fleming, a mother-in-law, Mrs. Viola Jones. Three sisters, Mary Deloise (Michael) Kennedy of Philadelphia, PA, Linda (Michael) Ekeridge of Memphis, Tennessee, Patricia Fleming of Memphis, Tennessee. Two brothers, Freddie Fleming of Dyersburg, Tennessee and Tommie Fleming, Jr. of Somerville, Tennessee. Eleven sisters-in-law, nine brothers-in-law. A host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Acknowledgement

We looked up and our friends were there with smiling faces and hearts open.

You comforted us and shared our grief, may God continue to bless and keep you. Our gratitude cannot be expressed in words.

But thanks for lifting the cloud and letting the sun shine through.
