I NEEDED THE QUIET

I needed the quiet, so He drew me aside
Into the shadows where we could confide.

Away from the bustle where all the day long,
I hurried and worried, when active and strong.

I needed the quiet though at first I rebelled.

But gently, so gently my cross He upheld
And whisper so sweetly of spiritual things.

Though weakened in body, my spirit touch wings.
To Heights never dreamed when active and gay.

He loved me so greatly,
He drew me away.

I needed the quiet, no prison my bed;
But beautiful valley of blessing instead.

A place to grow richer, in God to hide.
I needed the quiet so He drew me aside.
