Obituary

NO ONE HERES THE DOOR THAT OPENS INTO
WHICH THEY PASS WITHOUT RECALL, SOFT
AS THE LOOSENED LEAVES OF AUTUMN, ONE
BY ONE, OUR LOVED ONES FALL.

Thus the end came quietly for Sister Maggie Tucker, Feb. 24, 1980 at her home. She was born May 20, 1921 to the late Albert and Susie West of Brownsville, Penn. She professed a belief in Christ and joined the Macedonia Baptist Church. She later moved to Chicago. She United in Holy Matrimony to Brother Arthur Tucker. To that union there were no children.

Our hearts are filled with sorrow, but we realize this home going is the greatest experience of Sister Tucker's life, which was filled with wonderful experiences.

We must not mourn as those without hope, for Sister Tucker has gone to get her great, new, and promised to all who faithfully serve our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She was a good neighbor and friend.

She leaves to cherish her memory five sisters and two brothers. Albert West Jr., Willie West, Josephine West, Eula Hess, Gladys Bowles, Johnnie Coleman, and Mary Hall. She leaves two sister in-laws, Luretha West and Sarah West. Four brother in-laws, A.D. Bowles, Leroy Hess, Daniel Coleman, and Louis Hall. Three aunts, Leora Cliff, Cardelia Taylor, Theorda Taylor. Two uncles, Willie West, Floyd Austin, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

Sister Tucker's Husband

Brother Arthur Tucker:

The end came for Brother Arthur Tucker Friday, Feb. 22, 1980 at Oak Forest Hospital. He was born to the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tucker of Grenada, Mississippi. He leaves two sons James and Lloyd Tucker, and nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
