OBITUARY

An abundant and beautiful Christian life came to a close Saturday morning, July 26, 1969. Brother Titus Rives was born in Haywood County, Tenn., to the late Richard and Candice Rives, April 14, 1884.

At an early age he was converted, baptized and joined Douglass Chapel CME Church. Later in life, chose as a mate, Miss Ada Marble. To this union two daughters were born. After her death, he was united in marriage to Miss Olia Carney and to this union five children were born.

He was a devoted Christian, a faithful husband and father. He served as superintendent of Sunday School for over 40 years and also as secretary of the church and member of the Steward board. He sang in the choir diligently and served in many other capacities. He loved his church sincerely and was devoted to it.

He was a good neighbor, industrious, a lawabiding citizen, a man who will be greatly missed in his home, church and community. He was highly respected by all who knew him. He taught his children to be God-loving and God-fearing and to be Christian.

He is survived by a devoted wife, Mrs. Olia Rives of Stanton; three daughters, Mrs. Beulah Moore of Chicago, Ill., Mrs. Marie Herd of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Mayme Dotson of Stanton; 1 stepdaughter, Miss Geneva Miller, Stanton; two sons, Mr. Ivory Reeves, Louisville, Ky., Mr. Wayne Reeves, Nashville, Tenn.; a brother, Mr. Robert Rives of Stanton; three grandchildren, a great grandchild; two sons-in-law; two daughters-in-law; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Mayme Anthony, Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Emma Reeves, Stanton, and many nieces and nephews, friends and relatives, to mourn his passing.

To get a great reward
He fought the fight, he kept the faith
And now he has gone home to God.
